

We recognise that making the decision to live in an aged care is not an easy one. Our focus is providing emotional support to residents and their families upon admission, and on a day-to-day basis. You can rest assured you or your loved one are in the best of hands with our team of nursing staff, personal carers and services support staff who genuinely care.

We believe that ongoing development, reinvestment and innovation paves the way to meeting the needs and desires of our residents well into the future!

Allied Health

Allied health services in residential aged care provide essential, multidisciplinary care to improve resident's quality of life, mobility, and independence. Key services include physiotherapy for falls prevention and mobility, occupational therapy for functional assessments, podiatry, speech pathology, and dietetics. These services are tailored to individual needs, addressing chronic conditions, rehabilitation, and dementia care. These services are provided by qualified health professionals - distinct from doctors and nurses.
